Top parade troupes come together for a grand showcase The world's elite compete to be crowned the King of Lion Dance

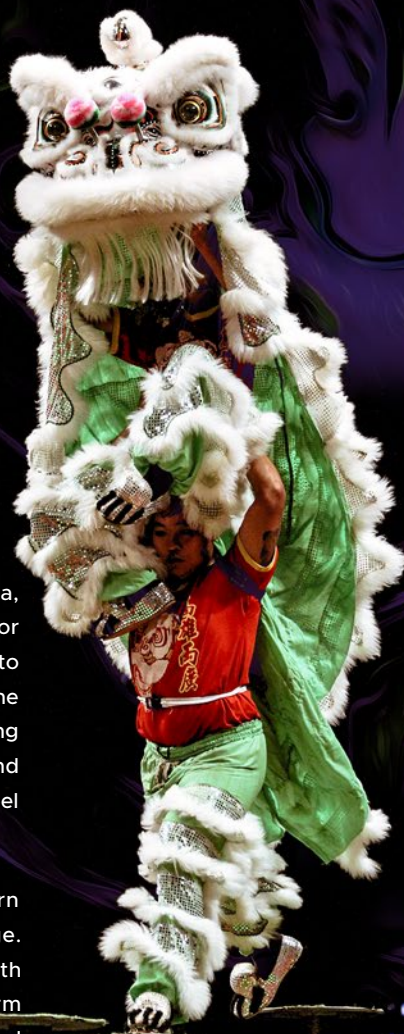

2023 Kaohsiung Lion Dance

The Lion Dance Competition is an annual cultural festival in Kaohsiung City. It began as a temple festival in Sishihjia Township, Taiwan's oldest industrial area. In 2010, the Cultural Bureau of the Kaohsiung City Government established it as a worldwide lion dance competition and gathering of Taiwanese parade troupes. Over 120,000 visitors have cheered on the participating Lions. Along with the Genting World Lion Dance Championship and the Macau Lion Dance Championship, the Kaohsiung Lion Dance Competition is ranked as one of the top three lion dance competitions in the world. After many years of local cultivation and development, the Kaohsiung Lion Dance Competition not only carries on the culture, but also protects and enhances the value of cultural relics.

A Parade Competition will be held on November 18 and the Lion Dance Competition will be held on November 19 at the Kaohsiung Arena. More than 20 groups and individuals from all over Taiwan and Kaohsiung City who preserve cultural assets such as art, traditional performing arts or folklore are invited to demonstrate their skills and the cultural vitality of Taiwan. A temple stage will be set up to showcase Taiwan's development history and the traditional folk parade. The stage is designed to immerse the audience in the experience of an indoor temple fair.

The Lion Dance Contest brings together groups from Malaysia, Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan and other teams to compete for the title of Lion King and the grand prize. They will compete to reach the "Flying High Pile" to showcase their lion dance skills. The performance area consists of 21 poles to create the most exciting lion dance space in Taiwan. The venue is equipped with ground level seats to allow the audience to get closer to the lion and feel the sensation of jumping the pile and plucking the greens.

Join us this November as we welcome the triumphant return of The Lion King and celebrate Taiwan's rich cultural heritage. We cordially invite you to come to Kaohsiung to cheer on both local and foreign lion dance teams and experience the charm of folk culture through the fusion of lion competitions and performance arts.

11.18 Folk Parade

Welcome to enjoy the refreshed Taiwan temple fair culture as the top parade groups from Taiwan assemble at Kaohsiung Arena.

11.19 Battle of the Lions

Top lion dance teams from around the world compete in battles with high stakes for a chance at over one million NT dollars in prize money.

Folk Parade

The 2023 Kaohsiung Lion Dance will showcase Taiwan's epic history in a parade (Din Tao) that conveys stories passed down through the millennia. Through music, song, dance and formations, it recounts historical transformations from the primitive era to the age of exploration, then from crossing the Straits to reclaiming the wasteland, culminating in today's diverse society.

Folklore specialist Professor Lin Mao-Hsien, Jiu-Tian Folk Arts Group representative Hsu Huai-Wen, renowned concert stage designer Feng Chien-Chang, and Golden Horse Award nominee for Best Art Design Chen Hsuan-Shao will collaborate to create a massive and immersive temple stage for Taiwan's upcoming festival. The spectacle will feature a combination of virtual and real performances and will take place at the Kaohsiung Arena on November 18th, making it an extraordinary experience.

Battle of the Lions

Lion dance teams from Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, and Taiwan are competing for the championship title.

This year, the new Genting Lion King from Singapore's Yiwei Athletic Association will use its strength to take on Malaysia's Lion King Kun Seng Keng and Taiwan's Lu Chang Hsing. Not only will the top three teams compete for supremacy, but other powerful teams such as Hong Kong's Yun Fook Tang, Kuantan Builders' Association Lion & Dragon Dance Club from Malaysia, Taoyuan's New Yiqun, Taiwan's Peide Lion Dance Troupe, and Kaohsiung's Liang Guang Lion Dance Troupe will also participate in the 2023 Kaohsiung Lion Dance Championship!

If you want to witness the world's most exciting and thrilling competition among the Lion Kings, visit the Kaohsiung Arena! It's a thrilling and valuable experience!

Double Classics: Cate Blanchett

Cate Blanchett: Before the Queen, after the Queen

Elizabeth (1998) marked Cate Blanchett's rise to screen royalty. As an actress known for portraying queens, she left a lasting impression with her resilient and refined persona. Once on the throne, her rebellious performance in I'm Not There, her formidable character in Blue Jasmine, and her unbridled passion in Carol captivated fans.

Cate Blanchett's first Oscar-nominated role, in which she captures the Queen's legendary, extraordinary manner

★ Golden Globe Award for Best Actress in a Motion Picture – Drama (1999)

In 1554, during the reign of Mary I, England was experiencing extraordinary turmoil. When Elizabeth ascended the throne in 1558, the entire nation celebrated. Elizabeth was thrilled not only to be queen, but also to see her childhood friend Robert Dudley return from exile. But an unexpected palace coup, hidden agendas, and diplomatic disagreements created turmoil for the new monarch.

Location: Neiwei Arts Center

My angel, flung out of space.

★ Winner of the Best Actress award at the 2015 Cannes Film Festival
Therese Belivet works as a saleswoman in a big store in Manhattan. She has a passion for photography, but is unhappy with the gap between her dreams and her everyday life. One day she meets Carol, a sophisticated and charming upper-class woman. Despite their age difference and different backgrounds, they fall in love at first sight and embark on a road trip together that awakens intense feelings and desires. The movie is an adaptation of Patricia Highsmith's romantic novel and raises the question of how much one is willing to sacrifice for love.

2023 Kaohsiung International Steel & Iron Sculpture Festival- everything is connected

11.1-12.3

Penglai Warehouse B4+B3 & beside Warehouse B10

The 2023 Kaohsiung International Steel & Iron Sculpture Festival will feature an indoor theme exhibition for the first time. There will also be an outdoor creation camp demonstration with the theme "Everything is connected". This cross-disciplinary approach to art and design transcends material boundaries and reflects Kaohsiung's position as a city of continuous production and creation. An all-encompassing industrial landscape of steel, factories, landscapes and workers will be presented.

2023 Kaohsiung Design Festival-from micro to macro

A fresh way of looking at everyday life, beginning with the small details.

11.1-12.3

Penglai Warehouse B4, B3

There seems to be something in our lives that makes our food, clothing, homes, and transportation more convenient, efficient, attractive, and even healing.

Everything around us, from eating to sleeping to getting around, seems to be intentionally designed for a comfortable existence, hence the ubiquity of good design.

This exhibition takes a closer look at the small places and details of everyday life, offering a big-picture perspective that invites us to imagine things from different angles. It highlights the value of unconscious design and encourages conscious attention.

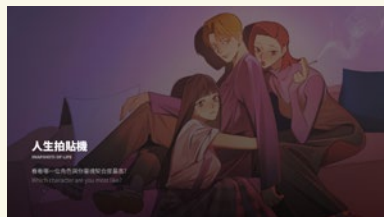

Unseen Mangakas | Whose Face Behind Female Characters

5.2-12.24

Dayi Warehouse C7: A.C.G.N. Warehouse

"Unseen Mangakas | Whose Face Behind Female Characters" presents stories of women from eight anime works. These "anime women" have different faces and lives in the author's works.

The women in the anime reflect the society in which the author lives. Full of humor and drama, the story delves into the daily lives of the three sisters who unexpectedly find themselves single. The featured artworks depict "Three Unmarried Women" as a character portrait and piece together the social landscape by exploring the stories of different characters.

Memoirs of Life

6.16-11.13 Dayong Warehouse C5

Forty artists were invited to share meaningful memories of life in this exhibition, transforming life stories into wonderful creations using design techniques to reflect on precious memories in life.

The Made & Co. Design's "Let's award" series transforms awards into a means to show love and appreciation to important people in life, including loyal friends, reliable partners, wise elders, and oneself. Each trophy captures the essence of inspiring moments in everyday life and represents a meaningful keepsake.

2023 ART KAOHSIUNG

12.1-12.3 Dayong Warehouse P2, P3

With extensive exhibition experience, ART KAOHSIUNG Art Fair has established a strong artistic and cultural presence in southern Taiwan. With support from industry, government and academia, it has helped promote contemporary art throughout Taiwan. The event features over 100 high quality galleries from Eurasia and Asia. These galleries come together to create the largest art event in southern Taiwan.

2023 YOUNG ART KAOHSIUNG

11.17-11.19

Dayong Warehouse P3, TAI Urban Resort

Rookies

The event explores art through various media, styles, and themes. It provides a platform for up-and-coming artists to enter the market and encourages collectors to visit the open art space.

Selections

Ten artists from YOUNG ART KAOHSIUNG were invited back to the exhibition to showcase classic hidden beauty once more.

TAI Urban Resort Illustration Area

STAART Illustration Art Fair is introducing two curated exhibitions for the first time. The TAI Urban Resort serves as the second exhibition area and is particularly suited for collectors who cherish illustration art.

King of Whimsy and Adventure

It's an exciting world in a skyscraper! The legendary King Kong and Gojira, which devastated the city 90 years ago, will come to life in a section of Kaohsiung Bay Area! The exhibition will showcase visuals of paintings, toy designs, and pottery works of monstrous creatures, as well as adventurous environmental designs that promise visitors an unforgettable fantasy experience!

Tattooed Woman

My initial collection of art is a tattoo! Tattoos were once associated with taboo and negativity, but with the popularity of pop art, they have become a way for people to showcase their personality. This exhibit asks talented tattoo artists, specialized in illustration art, to offer on-site tattoo experiences. This way, attendees can memorialize their beloved artwork and personal emotions right on their bodies!

Special Exhibition: Whispers of Everyday Life

Eleven artists study ordinary things from a different point of view and show their emotional depth through drawings. Visitors can relive everyday experiences, understand their importance, and connect with their emotions by exploring these artworks.
