

Delivering Spring

Flowers in Full Bloom, I Meet You
Starting this spring,
Let's create more memories we can feel together.

KA<sup>17th</sup>HSIUNG SPRING ARTS FESTIVAL
CREATION OF SPRING
高雄 2026 春天藝術節
from 2 Feb. to 7 Jul.

FLOWERS IN FULL BLOOM, I MEET YOU

SEE YOU AT THE THEATER!

What is being seventeen like for you? As the Kaohsiung Spring Arts Festival (KSAF) enters its seventeenth year, standing at the threshold of adulthood, what exciting programs await you? This year, the 17th KSAF draws inspiration from Michelangelo's masterpiece, "The Creation of Adam," for its visual theme. With spring flowers in full bloom, it's time for us to meet again.

After the Lunar New Year, the season opens with the 228 Memorial Lawn Concert "Formosa, Forever in My Heart," healing wounds and embracing love and peace. Next, two movie-themed lawn concerts take the stage: Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl, featuring the classic score by Klaus Badelt and Hans Zimmer, and Flow, conducted live by its original composer, Rihards Zalpupe. Both concerts will be performed by the Kaohsiung Symphony Orchestra with the full films projected on a large screen, guiding audiences of all ages on exciting adventures under the gentle night sky—alongside Captain Jack Sparrow and the animals.

This year, KSAF also welcomes international performing artists to Kaohsiung. Highlights include Ukrainian pianist Konstantin Lifschitz, renowned for his interpretations of Bach and hailed by Taiwanese media as a "musical ascetic," as well as the UK-based Hopeful Monster Theatre, a three-woman collective known for its collaborative visual theater works that are playful in spirit, inspired by the natural world, and grounded in science. Together, these artists will bring audiences a rich audiovisual experience from diverse perspectives.

The most anticipated in-house flagship opera returns to revisit the fan-favorite classic: Puccini's masterpiece La bohème. Music lovers are invited to immerse themselves in the Parisian chanson atmosphere brought to life through the composer's timeless storytelling. In addition to the outstanding performances presented by the Kaohsiung Symphony Orchestra and the Kaohsiung Chinese Orchestra, this year's Environmental Dance series continues to take dance beyond the theater and into the outdoors. Performances will unfold across multiple sites, including Cishan Living Cultural Park, Hongmaogang Cultural Park, the Neiwei Natural Misty Forest, the Neiwei Arts Center, and the Former Sanhe Bank, transforming each landscape into a stage alive with movement and distinctive, place-based rhythm. In addition, two programs highly anticipated by theatergoers—KSAF Experimental Theatre and KSAF Taiwanese Opera—will be presented at the Kaohsiung Experimental Theatre and the Dadong Arts Center. Whether you're drawn to bold experimentation or innovative reinterpretations of traditional theater, these productions promise a richly satisfying experience for drama lovers.

From the lingering chill of late February to the blazing heat of July, the Kaohsiung Spring Arts Festival looks forward to seeing you at the theater!

愛 高雄國際貨櫃藝術節 要廢

2025 KAOHSIUNG INTERNATIONAL CONTAINER ARTS FESTIVAL
Eco Love Zero Waste
Dec 20, 2025 → Mar 1, 2026

●No.11 Berth and QianShui No.1 Berth, Port of Kaohsiung
●Sea Breeze Plaza, Kaohsiung Music Center

This year's festival centers on the theme "Eco Love, Zero Waste", with local and international art teams exploring different aspects of ocean regeneration and sustainable living. Some works create immersive, walk-through spaces that encourage audiences to step inside the containers and rediscover the city and its harbor. Some capture the movement of light, shadow, and crowds, freezing the dynamic elements of urban life within the containers. Other works tell the stories of life on this land, using containers as vessels of "time and space" to guide audiences through themes of waste and regeneration, toward a vision of the city's future.

GETTING THERE
1. Take the Kaohsiung Metro Orange Line to Yanchengpu Station and walk about 15 minutes.
2. Take the Kaohsiung Light Rail to Love Pier Station or Dayi Pier-2 Station, then walk about 2 or 7 minutes.

VON WOLFFE THE GARDEN FORTRESS

馮·沃爾夫的 花園堡壘

Von Wolfe's Hybrid Aesthetics
Re-Interpreting the Classics and Co-Creating with AI

This exhibition marks Von Wolfe's first major retrospective in Asia, offering a comprehensive presentation of his nearly twenty-year creative journey. It is organized into three thematic chapters: Confluence of a Floating World - The Resonance of a Hybrid Aesthetic; Concertos of Masterpieces - Honoring the Classics Through a Cultural Gene Pool; and Chapter of AI Co-Creation - Von Wolfe's Re-Evolution, which focuses on contemporary creative methods. From the re-interpretation of classical masterpieces to contemporary experiments co-created with AI, Von Wolfe's work constantly navigates the space between reason and imagination, history and creation. We warmly invite audiences to step into the exhibition and, through both observation and reflection, experience how art responds to a world of constant change and uncertainty.

This family music celebration brings together U.S.-trained pianist Chiu Ai-Ying, France-trained percussionist Chiu Ai-Szu, and Switzerland-trained percussionist Chiu Ting-Hsun. Bound by deep sisterly ties, the three are not only loving siblings but also exceptional partners on stage. They are joined by American pianist Daniel Jepson, who is also the eldest sister’s husband, to present an exciting program of outstanding works by modern composers in the winter of 2026.

Draw Your Forest Within! 2025.9.26-2026.3.29
Dayong Warehouse C5

The exhibition presents the dialogue and imagination with forests from the illustrator’s perspective. It not only depicts the forests’ diverse forms and characters, but also embraces the freedom of fantasy and fiction, reflecting humanity’s perception and understanding of nature.

The “Ecological Forest” exhibition zone draws on two picture books—Love Letter by Animo and Hide & Seek by Page Tsou—to explore the complex relationship between forest ecosystems and human civilization, one that is both interdependent and marked by constant tension. Through stories, illustrations, videos, and interactive installations, the exhibition invites visitors to reflect together on the distance between humans and nature, and to consider how we can live more gently alongside the forest.

Hamasen Railway Cultural Park

Hamasen Railway Cultural Park is a popular destination on weekends and holidays, where visitors can enjoy sightseeing, relaxing, and taking photos. One of the park’s highlights is its collection of vintage trains, sourced from across Taiwan and meticulously restored. More than 30 retired trains, once used for transporting passengers and goods or serving specific industrial purposes, are showcased in the park, recreating the bustling railway operations that once characterized the Hamasen Railway.

Coastline Sightseeing Train “Hamasen Express”

One of the park’s most popular experiences is riding the coastline sightseeing train, the “Hamasen Express,” which bridges the past and present of Hamasen. Operating on Saturdays, Sundays, and national holidays, the train passes by sites like the Old Takao Station Platform, the park’s pedestrian bridge, the North Signal Tower, and the Kaohsiung Harbor Inspection Subsection, taking passengers on a journey through the century-long history of the Hamasen Railway. Whether you are a railway enthusiast or a visitor to Kaohsiung, we invite you to come and relive the excitement of trains running through Hamasen once again!

Brand-In-Residence

SNOW Gelato

Location: Next to Hamasen Station of Kaohsiung Light Rail
Opening Hours: Daily 11:00-18:00

In this gently sweet Spring Festival moment, welcome the New Year with a scoop of “sakura” (cherry blossom). The February-limited Sakura Milk Tea Gelato is made with natural cherry blossom tea powder imported from Japan, blended with a smooth, fresh milk base, as subtle tea notes unfold into a delicate floral aroma. Its soft pink hue evokes the first blossoms of spring. Topped with a cherry blossom-shaped cookie, each bite brings together creamy milk and fragrant sakura, lightly sweet and never cloying, leaving behind a lingering taste of spring.

2.6-2.22  Jih-Jhen Gallery-1, 2
2026 Year of the Horse: Zodiac Creativity Exhibition

The Kaohsiung Cultural & Design Development Association (KCDD), in its commitment to preserving cultural traditions and deepening cultural roots, integrates cultural consciousness, design energy, and artistic aesthetics into daily life. This exhibition is specially organized to breathe new life into the millennium-old essence of zodiac culture. Taking the 2026 Bingwu Year of the Horse as its creative theme, the exhibition draws on creativity and innovation to present a wide range of contemporary cultural and creative works, including design, art, and craftsmanship. Through these works, the exhibition conveys wishes of hope, peace, and smooth fortune for all, sharing blessings and positive energy as we welcome the new year.

Ciaotou Pathfinding Chronicles: Ciaotou Special Exhibition

2025.12.24-2026.6.28  Special Exhibition Room 203

Ciaotou’s first settlement and trading records date back more than 400 years. The establishment of modern sugar factories turned sugarcane into the economic lifeblood, while the Ciaotou Incident and peasant movements made the area a landmark, marking the beginning of Taiwan’s democratic spirit. Today, with the MRT connecting the city and a science park on the horizon, Ciaotou is opening an exciting new chapter. This exhibition invites visitors to journey along four pathways: water, sugar, people, and the future, and discover the life map of Ciaotou.

Hamasen Museum of Taiwan Railway

 Penglai Warehouses B7 & B8, The Pier-2 Art Center (No. 99, Penglai Rd., Gushan Dist., Kaohsiung City)  07-521-8900  Mon. to Sun., 10:00-18:00 (Closed on Tue.)

The special exhibition “All Aboard the Gourmet Express” is a collaborative project between this museum and the National Railway Museum. Focusing on the development of railway dining cars and railway bento, the exhibition explores their cultural contexts and distinctive characteristics. Through this comparison, visitors are invited to discover the close relationship between the evolution of transportation and food culture, and to gain a deeper understanding of Taiwan’s rich and diverse railway culinary culture.

In addition to the new exhibition, don’t forget the Hamasen Pier-2 Line train! Featuring a distinctive orange-and-black design and decorated with Mikan, the beloved Kaohsiung Metro Cat Stationmaster, the Citrus Train is a favorite among visitors of all ages. The train circles the Penglai Warehouses, with each ride lasting approximately 6–8 minutes. Tickets are available for purchase—everyone is welcome to hop aboard!

Lan Yu, Summer Palace —We Fell in Love, and Then Came Regret

Text by Sean Lee (writer)

In Lan Yu, what begins as a playful agreement between two men is undone as desire, in its confusion, breaks the very rules it set. In Summer Palace, ideologies awaken on university campuses amid protest marches, first tastes of the forbidden, and the intimate closeness of love. Their overdependence on one another gradually becomes a burden. In the wake of the June Fourth Incident, emotion becomes political, life becomes political, and even intimate relationships are politicized. As they grow, these relationships fracture and remain unfinished. They yearn for a form of love and desire far more painful than taboo itself—and they learn to live with regret.

Summer Palace

 LOU Ye

Yu Hong (played by Hao Lei), fearless in love and in hate, leaves her hometown alone in 1987, saying goodbye to her childhood friend as she journeys to Beijing to pursue her studies. In the city, she falls into a fiery love with classmate Zhuo Wei (played by Guo Xiaodong). Their intense romance is shadowed by anxiety, disappointment, and conflict, driving them to seek solace in passionate encounters that temporarily soothe the gaps in their souls.

★ 2001 Golden Horse Awards: Best Director, Best Leading Actor, Best Adapted Screenplay & Best Film Editing

Handong, a wealthy young man from Beijing, is successful in business and surrounded by women, yet he is attracted to men. Lan Yu, a college student in the prime of youth, is forced by circumstances into sex work and, by chance, becomes Handong’s lover. Before their affair begins, they agree on the rules—to meet, to part, without attachment—yet they gradually become consumed by their passion. At the same time, reality begins to tear everything apart...
