Moreover, the family-favorite DIY hands-on workshops are back! The "Get Hands-on Crafting" series offers families a chance to cook a heartwarming meal together at Huangpu Wonderland, craft pineapple fiber paper postcards at the Taiwan Pineapple Museum, or learn about prehistoric tools at the Fengpitou Archaeology Education Center. Visitors can also experience making traditional toys like bamboo guns and wooden boats at the Hongmaogang Cultural Park—engaging both minds and hands to spark pure creative joy. Meanwhile, the "Joy of Reading" series invites children to an overnight sleepover at the Kaohsiung Public Library (Main Library), embarking on a 26-hour reading adventure packed with bilingual picture books, creative drama, and imaginative exploration. Lay Down 2026.6.12-2027.3.1

Dayong Warehouse C5

In a world that never stops running forward, standing up means labor, alertness, and efficiency. We are so accustomed to existing perpendicular to the ground that we have forgotten our most relaxing, restorative moments happen when we are parallel to it.

When we lie level with the earth, the gravity that weighs on our shoulders quietly dissipates. The walls we once thought we had crashed into become, from a different perspective, windows to the stars; our towering fears shrink into mere specks of dust on the ceiling.

The exhibition Lay Down invites Taiwanese contemporary artists to help viewers recalibrate their vision through their work. If life has left you weary, just lay down for a while. Get ready, then rise and begin again.
